Graduate Diploma in Early Childhood Education

Australia’s largest provider

Victoria University proudly stands as the largest provider of the Graduate Diploma in Education (GDEC) in Australia. In 2024, the program has reached a remarkable milestone, with over 5,000 students actively enrolled.

All our Early Childhood Education courses are fully approved by ACECQA, offering you the opportunity to become a fully-qualified early childhood teacher after graduating.

Extensive placement network

Over the past six years, VU has partnered with nearly 5,000 childcare centers nationwide, providing students with valuable placement opportunities. If students cannot arrange their own placements, VU guarantees one, ensuring every student gains the experience needed for success.

Award-winning VU Block Model®

When you study an Early Childhood Education course at VU, you’ll benefit from the award-winning VU Block Model®, an innovative style of higher education. You’ll study one subject at a time, in small, interactive classes. This immersive and engaging method has resulted in higher pass rates and improved results for our international students.

Better student experience

With a maximum of 35 students per class, you’ll benefit from enhanced engagement and personalized attention, leading to better academic outcomes. Additionally, with our block-by-block payment schedule, fees are charged per unit, allowing you to pay through flexible monthly instalments.

Scholarship opportunities

The Early Childhood Education International Scholarship provides eligible international students with up to a 25% reduction in tuition fees.

For Graduate Diploma in Early Childhood Education students, this scholarship offers a 20% reduction in tuition fees and only applies for February and April 2025 intakes.

Eligibility and application

All new international students commencing one of the Early Childhood Education courses listed below (including ELSIS EAP packages) at VU Sydney or Brisbane in 2025 are eligible for the scholarship.
